

Scott McTominay & Bank of Scotland limited-edition banknote auction terms and conditions – May 2025

Auction Overview

Bank of Scotland is auctioning 25 limited-edition commemorative banknotes (from a total of 100 produced). The different lot categories are:

- Fourteen (14) of the banknotes will be separately signed by Scott McTominay.
- Ten (10) of the banknotes will be unsigned.
- One (1) auction lot will include both a banknote signed by Scott McTominay and a piece of signed memorabilia from Scott McTominay.

Please note: this is an auction for goods and not a prize draw or prize competition.

These auction T&Cs are published at www.bankofscotland.co.uk/mctominay.

Who is running the auction?

The auction and sale will be run through our partner Spink & Son and is subject to their terms and conditions (“Terms & Conditions (UK) - Buyers”) available on their website:

www.spink.com/terms-and-conditions. The specific terms applicable can be found at: https://storage.spink.com/source/terms-and-conditions/T_and_C_UK_Buyers.pdf/. Please ensure you read the terms carefully before participating in the auction.

Who is the Promoter / Seller

Bank of Scotland plc. Registered Office: The Mound, Edinburgh EH1 1YZ. Registered in Scotland No. SC327000.

Is the auction online?

Yes, the auction is online only via Spink & Son. 26044 - A Bank of Scotland McTominay Charity Auction - e-Auction | Spink

What are the dates and times of the auction?

The auction opens at 09:00am on 22 May 2026 and closes at 11:00am on 26 June 2026.

Who should not take part in the auction?

This auction is not aimed at children or vulnerable individuals. You are encouraged to enter responsibly and only if you can afford to do so. This auction is not intended to encourage financial hardship, debt, or excessive participation.

Why are they limited-edition notes?

Only 100 of these limited-edition notes have been produced in total and only 25 are available via the auction. The notes are intended to be collectors’ items but are legal currency and can be spent.

How will the auction be run?

Auction bids, fees, taxes (including any applicable VAT or commission payable), delivery and payment arrangements are determined and administered solely by Spink & Son, in accordance with Spink’s terms and conditions (“Terms & Conditions (UK) - Buyers”) available on their website: www.spink.com/terms-and-conditions. The specific terms applicable can be found at:

https://storage.spink.com/source/terms-and-conditions/T_and_C_UK_Buyers.pdf/. Please ensure you read the terms carefully before participating in the auction.

Charity Solicitation Statement

Bank of Scotland will donate 100% of the proceeds raised from the auction of Scott McTominay banknotes (including any lots stated to include additional memorabilia) to Crisis UK (trading as “Crisis”). Due to the nature of the auction, the final amount expected to be raised for Crisis is uncertain and cannot be guaranteed. Bank of Scotland will not be deducting the production costs, distribution costs or marketing costs of the fundraising campaign from the proceeds, nor will it receive any payments from the fundraising campaign. Crisis are a registered charity and company limited by guarantee with Company Number 4024938 and whose registered address is: Crisis, 50 – 52 Commercial Street, London, E1 6LT. Registered Charity No’s: England & Wales 1082947 & Scotland SC040094. Crisis’ website is www.crisis.org.uk. Crisis is a national charity for people experiencing homelessness. They help people directly out of homelessness and campaign for the changes needed to solve it altogether. Bank of Scotland (part of the Lloyds Banking Group) has a charity partnership with Crisis.

Is there any social media connection?

This auction is not sponsored, endorsed, or administered by, or associated with, any social media platform.

Data Responsibility

Bank of Scotland is the seller in this auction.

To take part in the auction, you will be directed to our partner, Spink. If you choose to participate, you will provide your personal data directly to them, and they will be responsible for processing your information to:

- administer your entry bid
- verify eligibility
- select the winning bidders and fulfil purchases

Spink acts as an independent data controller and is responsible for the lawful processing and safeguarding of your personal information in accordance with applicable data protection regulations, including the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

Bank of Scotland (the seller) does not collect or store your personal data as part of your participation in this auction.

Your personal data must only be used for the purposes of administering this auction unless you have been clearly informed and provided consent for any additional use.

Personal data collected for the purposes of this auction will not be used for any unrelated purposes, including marketing, unless the participant has been clearly informed and has provided valid consent where required.

For more information on how your personal data will be processed, please refer to the following privacy notices:

- Spink’s Privacy Notice: www.spink.com/privacy-policy

Spink are responsible for defining and applying appropriate data retention periods and for securely deleting data once it is no longer required for the purposes of the promotion.

By entering the auction, participants acknowledge that they will be providing their personal data directly to Spink, and that their relationship in respect of personal data processing will be with these organisations.

Nothing in these terms limits or excludes any individual's rights under applicable data protection legislation, including the right to access, rectify, or erase their personal data, or to raise a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO).