Member contributions are contributions paid by the applicant personally, or by someone else on the applicant's behalf, e.g. a parent, grandparent or spouse. They do not include employer contributions.

All member contributions are payable net of basic rate tax (20% for the 2024/25 tax year). We will reclaim basic rate tax from HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) and credit it to your SIPP. If you pay tax at a higher rate than basic rate you can claim any further tax relief to which you are entitled via self-assessment. If you are a Scottish or Welsh taxpayer and you pay tax at a rate higher than basic rate, you will be entitled to claim further tax relief at that higher rate. If you pay tax at lower than the basic rate of tax you will still be entitled to receive tax relief at the basic rate. Please note that if you are not the member named on the form but are paying a contribution on their behalf you will not be entitled to claim any further tax relief.

All employer contributions are payable gross. Where an employer intends to pay regular contributions by Direct Debit payments MUST be made from a UK bank or building society account in the employer's name. Single contributions must also be paid by cheque drawn on a UK bank or building society account in the employer's name.

Note: Transfers from other UK registered pension schemes can be paid into your SIPP. We will only accept a transfer of assets (in-specie) which are permitted investments under your SIPP. Please see the Bank of Scotland Share Dealing website, www.bankofscotland.co.uk/sharedealing or call on 0345 606 1188 for more information. Please send us details of the assets you wish to transfer.

By transferring from a final salary pension you will be giving up guarantees over the kind of benefits, the amount you will receive and the level of any increases that will be applied to your pension in the future. You must take regulated financial advice before transferring from most final salary pensions.

^{*}An in-specie transfer is a transfer of existing assets held under the transferring scheme, rather than cash.

6. Start-Up Fund

The Financial Conduct Authority - FCA have introduced new requirements to help customers who are not confident to pick and choose their own investment. Working with AJ Bell, we have a SIPP Start-Up Fund which could meet your retirement needs. More information regarding this fund can be found https://www.bankofscotland.co.uk/investing/landing-pages/self-invested-personal-pension.html

Please remember that the value of investments and the income from them can fall as well as rise, and you may get back less than you invest. If you're not sure about investing, seek financial advice. There will normally be a charge for that advice.

7. Death benefit expression of wishes

You should complete this form to tell AJ Bell who you wish to receive death benefits from your SIPP in the event of your death.

The nomination below ensures that as wide a range of people as possible are eligible to receive death benefits. [Please read our death benefit expression of wishes guide for help with completing this form].

Please note that if you are unsure about the implications of making the nomination and related expression of wishes or would like any advice about the effect of doing so, you should consult a financial adviser or other appropriately qualified professional.

Nomination

In the event of my death, I nominate all individuals who are Eligible Benefits Recipients (as defined in the scheme trust deed and rules) as the persons to whom you should consider allocating any death benefits from my SIPP.

Expression of wishes

In the event of my death, my wishes are that AJ Bell considers allocating any death benefits from my SIPP between my 'Eligible Benefits Recipients' as follows:

When you transfer a defined benefit/final salary pension scheme or a scheme that includes safeguarded benefits you give up a guaranteed income, as well as potential increases to that income in the future. For most defined benefit/final salary pension schemes or schemes that include safeguarded benefits, you'll need to take regulated financial advice before you can transfer it.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

We can only accept a defined benefit/final salary pension scheme or a scheme that includes safeguarded benefits transfer worth £30,000 or more if a suitably qualified financial adviser has recommended that the transfer is right for you.

To confirm you've received their recommendation, you and your adviser need to complete our Financial advice declaration form.

You can find this form on the 'Useful forms' section of https://www.bankofscotland.co.uk/investing/help-and-guidance/already-investing-with-bos/sipp-explained.html

Please send the completed form back to us along with this Transfer Form.

Important - please note that if you are transferring from a final salary pension and the expiry date of any transfer value guarantee is less than 10 working days away, then whilst we will do our very best, we cannot be held responsible if the deadline is missed.
